

March is nearly here, and so is the madness! Lead to Read KC is kicking off a bracket-style book competition to help collect the most requested and beloved titles for Kansas City students.

Each Monday in March, we'll feature a new book bracket on our social media.

- Pick your winners by pledging to donate the books you love most!
- The book with the most pledges at the end of each week moves forward
- By the end of the month, we'll have a champion—and a stocked-up supply of amazing books
